Name: Adams, Frankie V.

Full name: Adams, Florence Victoria

Date of birth: July 9, 1902

Date of death: August 29, 1979

Place of birth: near Danville, KY

Place of death: Fulton, Georgia

Place of burial: Hilldale Cemetery, Danville, KY

Education: Knoxville College
            New York School of Social Work, 1927 (MSW)

Employment: Atlanta University School of Social Work, professor

Field of activity: Social service, Higher education

Occupation: University and college faculty

Publications: Soulcraft: Sketches on Negro-White Relations Designed to Encourage Friendship (1944)

Some Pioneers in Social Work: brief sketches; student work book, with Whitney Young, Jr. (1957)

The Reflections of Florence Victoria Adams, a history of the Atlanta University School of Social Work (published posthumously in 1981)

Sources: Adams, Florence V. “Frankie at Notable Kentucky African Americans Database

Frankie V. Adams collection, 1931-1979 at Atlanta University Center Robert W. Woodruff Library

Adams, Frankie V., 1902-1979 at Social Networks and Archival Context

Florence V. “Frankie” Adams at Wikipedia

Frankie Adams (1902-1979) at NASW Foundation

Frankie V. Adams at WorldCat Identities
Gender: Female
Ethnicity: African American
Kentucky Counties: Boyle
Century tag: 20th
Author tag: a
OTHER: